A church in Bothell, Washington is hosting a very interesting debate this Saturday, with of all people, male porn star Ron Jeremy.

Ryan Meeks, the pastor of Eastlake Community Church has decided to hold a weekend long discussion about pornography. The 3-day event will consist of a Lady's night, Friday night, titled Porn and Pastries. The Saturday lesson, titled Porn in the Morn, is focused primarily on men and on Sunday, Meeks will interview debating Pastor Craig Gross and Ron Jeremy all throughout the four services Sunday. The actual debate will be on Saturday night.

In a discussion with KIRO radio's Dori Monson, Meeks tells the audience, "Pornography is mainstream. It's not something that no one talks about," he said. "There are 116,000 searches for child pornography every day."

Meeks also mentions that the average age a child sees internet porn is 11-years-old. His intent is to bring porn out into the open and become a resource for people who need help.

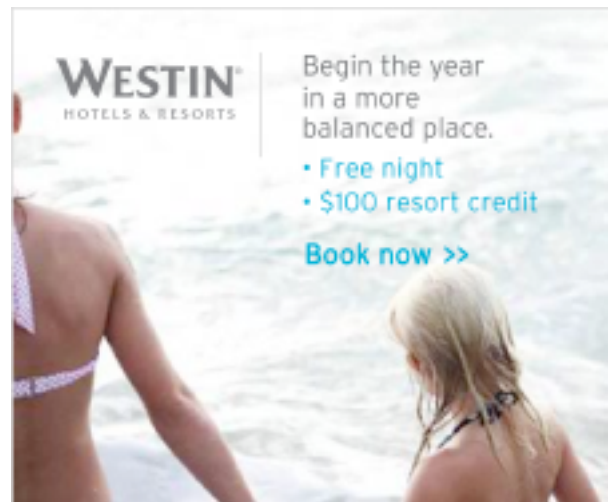

"There are thousands and thousands of people viewing porn in Seattle right this very minute," said Meeks.

The Great Porn debate has traveled to over 50 universities around the country, this being a unique experience having the debate at a church.

Pastor Meeks feels that it is only fair to represent both sides of the debate, which is why he chose to travel with jeremy and discuss the taboo topic.

Porn star Ron Jeremy has starred in over 1,800 porn films during his career.

The debate between Ron Jeremy and Pastor Craig will take place Saturday night at the EastLake Auditorium - 3301 Monte Villa Pkwy Ste. 200, Bothell WA 98021.
